The Montessori Introduction Studies

Why?

You want to invest in the quality of your teacher skills and you are interested in becoming a Montessori teacher. You want to join an international group of participants.

You want to spend time in Amsterdam, to learn, to read, to talk, to be introduced in the Montessori anthropology, the materials and you want to sharpen your vision.

You want to visit schools, to observe, to interview. And you want to become a lifelong learner, with international Montessori friends.

What?

After the MISt you have knowledge about the Montessori anthropology, the pedagogy and the didactics of several materials from 0 – 12 years. You can relate the Montessori vision with the latest scientific research and you have tools to practise it in your group.

When?

The MISt will cover a period of 4,5 days, 20 hrs, and is divided in different parts: lectures, workshops, 2 school visits, 4 class room observations and daily intervention.

Dates: 26 February – 2 March 2017. Maximum amount: 20 participants.

Where?

Location: Association Montessori International (AMI), Koninginneweg 161, Amsterdam, the Netherlands.

The Certificate

Seeing as the certificate 'Montessori Introduction Studies' contains 1 ECTS, there is a study required from 28 hour with a fulfilled assignment. It can also be used as evidence for student's professional development.

Whether the certificate can be part of the regular study depends on the specific university.
